Caroline Church of Brookhaven (Episcopal)

Welcome to Caroline Church

We are delighted that you have joined us this morning to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and hope that you have experienced His presence among us. If you are a newcomer or visitor, please sign our Guest Book, and fill out one of the “Welcome” envelopes found on the table in the Vestibule or in your pew rack, and return it to an usher. Plan to join us Sundays for worship at 8:00, 9:30, or 11:15 a.m. Nursery care is provided at the 9:30 a.m. service. Christian Education for children is offered at 9:30 a.m. each Sunday. You are invited to make Caroline Church your Church home. We look forward to getting to know you better and to answering any questions you may have about our worship and life together.

Worship in the Episcopal Church

Worship in the Episcopal Church is a dialogue between celebrant and people. All are encouraged to participate as fully as possible. Please join in singing and reading aloud the parts in bold-faced type.

About Communion

The Episcopal Church welcomes all baptized Christians to share in the Sacrament of the Lord's Table. Children who are baptized may receive as long as this is their desire as well as that of their parents. Sharing the consecrated Bread and Wine together has always been a part of Christian worship. Eating together is one of the most sacred of ancient customs and it reminds us that we should be sharing our lives together as Christian people.

Dismissal

Let us go forth in the name of Christ, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Thanks be to God, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Celebrant pronounces the Easter blessing over the People

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing.

We thank the Caroline Guild, and all members and friends of the church, who shared in making the sanctuary so beautiful for this Eastertide.

We also thank our choirs, the choir directors, our organist and trumpet players, for their musical offerings this morning.

ceive. Our custom is to consume the bread and then take a sip from the chalice (cup). When the Chalice Bearer offers you the cup, please place your hand at the bottom of the cup to guide it to your lips and tip it sufficiently. If you do not wish to drink from the chalice, you may leave the bread on the palm of your hand. The Chalice Bearer will dip the bread into the wine and place it upon your tongue.

If you do not wish to receive the wine, please consume the bread and then cross your hands and place them upon your chest before the Chalice Bearer approaches you. Please remain at the Altar rail until the Chalice Bearer has administered the cup to those on each side of you.

If you are not baptized, no matter what your age, please come to the rail, cross you hands and place them upon your chest before the celebrant approaches you to pronounce God's blessing. Please remain at the Altar rail until the Chalice Bearer has administered the cup to those on each side of you.

As you receive the Body then the Blood of Christ, please respond to the words "The Body of Christ, the Bread of Heaven" with Amen; and to the words "The Blood of Christ, the Cup of Salvation" with Amen.

 Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

People

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on Him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.
Receiving Communion

All baptized Christians are welcome to share in the Sacrament. You may kneel or stand to re-

Celebrant Let us pray.

Collect for Easter Day

Celebrant O God, who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may ever more live with him in the joy of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The people sit. Two Lessons, as appointed, are read. After each Lesson, the Lector may say
The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Lesson: Acts 10:34-43

The following portion of The Psalter is said between the Lessons. All remain seated.

The Psalm: Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

on us. Je - sus, re - deem - er of the world: Give us your peace.

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

Remember your people gathered as Caroline Church, and all who minister in your Church.

Remember all your people, and those who seek your truth.

Remember all who have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to you alone; bring them into the place of eternal joy and light.
And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

18 The LORD has ' punished me ' sorely, *
but he did not ' hand me ' over to ' death.

19 Open for me the ' gates of '
righteousness; *
I will enter them;
I will ' offer ' thanks to the ' LORD.

[Choir]

20 "This is the ' gate of the ' LORD; *
— ' he who is ' righteous may ' enter."

21 I will give thanks to you, ' for you '
answered me *
and have be'cöme ' my sal'vation.

[Congregation]

22 The same stone which the ' builders re'jected *
has be'come the ' chief ' cornerstone.

23 This is the ' LÖRD'S ' doing, *
and it is ' marvelous ' in our ' eyes.

[Choir]

24 On this day the ' LORD has ' acted; *
we will re'joice ' and be ' glad in it.

[Congregation and Choir]

Glory to the Father, and ' to the ' Son, *
and ' to the ' Holy ' Spirit:

As it was in the be'ginning, is ' now, *
and ' will be for'ever. A'men.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,

The Prayers of the People

The Deacon or other person appointed says

Sanctus

Celebrant and people:

The people kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of their presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving

Lord, have mercy

For Michael, our presiding Bishop, Larry, our Diocesan Bishop, GERALYN, our Assistant Bishop, for our Rector, Richard and Priest Associate, Farrell, for all bishops and other ministers, and for all the holy people of God, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For all who fear God and believe in you, Lord Christ, that our divisions may cease, and that all may be one as you and the Father are one, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For those who do not yet believe, and for those who have lost their faith, that they may receive the light of the Gospel, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For those in positions of public trust especially Barack, our President, the House, Senate and State Legislature, that they may serve justice, and promote the dignity and freedom of every person, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For all who live and work in this community of the Three Villages and Long Island, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For a blessing upon all human labor, and for the right use of the riches of creation, that the world may be freed from poverty, famine, and disaster, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For this congregation, for those who are present, and for those who are absent, that we may be delivered from hardness of heart, and show forth your glory in all that we do, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For our enemies and those who wish us harm; and for all whom we have injured or offended, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For ourselves; for the forgiveness of our sins, and for the grace of the Holy Spirit to amend our lives, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

For all who have died in the communion of your Church, especially those commemorated in our Eastertide Booklet and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, have mercy

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

To you, O Lord our God.

Celebrant For yours is the majesty, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

All kneel

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

People Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

All stand. The Celebrant says to the people

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.
