The Barn

The barn is filling up, which is creating several problems, from lack of access to attracting rodents. Please follow the following guidelines:

First, we can not accept non-salable items including mattresses, computers, printers, and CRT monitors.

Second, soft goods make for great nesting materials and nesting places for mice and other rodents. These include linens, clothing, stuffed animals and the like. Please hold soft goods until the ladies of the church hold their Rummage Sale. If that is not possible, Big Brothers/Sisters now has a manned donation spot in the Kohls Shopping Center on Rt. 347. Also consider the Setauket Presbyterian Church's Open Door Exchange for furniture donations.

Finally, it is important to keep a pathway to the staircase and back wall where the ladders are stored open at all times. We use those ladders year round to change lights, both inside and outside.
